1. There is an airfield about four kilometers from Zbuzh (R50/P93) on which an unknown number of jet fighters are located.<sup>1</sup> Neither the type of jet fighter nor the personnel strength of the base is known. The jets are Soviet planes.
2. Early in February 1953 one of the jets crashed after take-off and burned. As it burned there were a number of explosions, presumably from ammunition.

25X1A 1. Comment: This is possibly identical with the Dobruany airfield.
